

TREATING THE PAIN BEHIND THE SMILES: Suicide Prevention for Dental Professionals

*You can make a difference. You can save a life.
It can be as simple as starting a conversation.*

Healthcare professionals are at greater risk for suicide according to the Public Health Agency of Canada's Occupational Suicide List. This has led province departments of health to recommend or require these professionals to receive suicide prevention training.

Frank King, The Mental Health Comedian and Dental Suicide Prevention Speaker, works with dental teams to develop effective suicide prevention strategies within their practices. Participants learn how to recognize warning signs associated with suicide, understand how to start a conversation, and offer support through referrals. By participating in this course, you have the opportunity to make a difference in the lives of both co-workers and patients.

As a former writer for The Tonight Show, Frank knows how to infuse humor into his content and uses personal experience to highlight the importance of suicide prevention. Frank illustrates how suicide prevention practices reduce harm as well as facilitate a healthier, more productive, and more profitable office. Participants will gain a holistic understanding of mental health challenges in the workplace and learn how to reduce workplace stress, improve practice culture, and promote both patient and team well-being.

Did You Know?

Most province and territorial dental regulatory authorities and associations recommend a CE course in Suicide Assessment, Treatment, and Management for license renewal.

A number of provinces and territories are moving toward mandating this course as a requirement.

Are YOUR members in compliance?

FRANK KING

Speaker, Writer, Stigma Fighter

Are you able to recognize the signs and symptoms of depression and thoughts of suicide in your team and patients? Gain the skills and understanding necessary to save a life.

Depression and suicide run in Frank King's family. He has thought about killing himself more times than he can count. He's fought a lifetime battle with depression and thoughts of ending his life. Frank has turned that long dark journey of the soul into inspirational and motivational educational courses for healthcare professionals. His courses share lifesaving insights into mental and emotional health.

Frank King is a suicide prevention and postvention speaker, author and corporate comedian. He was a writer for The Tonight Show for 20 years and has been featured on CNN's Business Unusual. Frank is co-author of a book on men's mental fitness, Guts, Grit, and the Grind. He co-hosts a podcast, The Suicide Prevention Punchline. He has presented five TEDx talks.

By coming out, as it were, and standing in his truth and doing it with humor, Frank starts a conversation giving people with mental and emotional illness permission to give voice to their feelings and experiences surrounding depression and suicide. He creates a common pool of knowledge in which those who suffer, and those who care about them, can swim. Frank believes that where there is humor there is hope, where there is laughter there is life, and nobody dies laughing.

RAVE REVIEWS:

"Frank King speaks with humility and humor, connecting head and heart around one of the most important topics of our time: suicide prevention. A true leader of thought, Frank speaks from personal experience and deep understanding. I encourage my dental event planning colleagues to bring Frank King to inspire and educate your attendees. This topic is rapidly moving from recommended to required CE for healthcare licensure. You have the opportunity to work with one of the BEST educators on this topic in dentistry with Frank King."

"It was really a great pleasure to have you speak at our Cardiovascular Symposium. We can all get a bit serious and tunnel-visioned in terms of our professions and you gave us a very nice perspective from the view of the patient. Your performance really lightened the atmosphere of the conference; there were several cardiologist at my table that were bent over double laughing!"
